English Language Arts Lesson for 10 Towns that Changed America

Magazine Planning Worksheet: Mock Interviews

Name_____________________________  Date___________

Directions: With your group, imagine you are going to conduct an interview (for publication in the magazine) with someone affiliated with the town. What will you ask? And answer—you must write the answers too!

1) Whom will you interview?____________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

2) Why have you chosen this person as your subject?______________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

3) What do you hope your readers will learn through this interview?
   On the rest of this paper, generate a list of five questions that you will ask your subject. When you write the interview for the magazine, you will write the answers that you imagine this person would say.

1)____________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ?

2)____________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ?

3)____________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ?

4)____________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ?

5)____________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ?