English Language Arts Lesson for 10 Towns that Changed America

Magazine Planning Worksheet: Town Philosophy

Name ___________________________ Date ____________

Directions: With your group, answer the following questions about the philosophy of the town for your article for the magazine.

1) What is the philosophy of this town? __________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________

2) How did this philosophy develop? ____________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________

3) Why did this philosophy develop? In other words, was it a reaction or backlash against prior ideas about urban planning? ____________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________

4) If this plan was a backlash against previous models, what were those models? Describe them here ____________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________

6) How will the design of this town fulfill the philosophy? ____________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________________________

7) Is this the only town in America with this philosophy? If not, list some others. ______________

__________________________________________________________________________________________