Directions: With your group, answer the following questions about the special features of the town for your article for the magazine.

1) What are the special features of the streets?

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

2) What are the special features of the open spaces?

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

3) What are the special features of the housing, stores, and other buildings?

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

4) In your words, what makes this town special?

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

5) Is the architecture special? If so, describe it.

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

6) List any other special features that you have not already described.

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________